

Obituaries

Amos E. Bacon, baseball enthusiast

Amos Earl Bacon, 84-year-old Redmond resident, died Thursday in Evergreen Hospital Medical Center. There will be no service.

He was born Dec. 12, 1907, in Huffman, S.D., and had worked at Rocket Research until his retirement in 1974.

Since his retirement, Mr. Bacon has been very active in Redmond High School baseball and the Redmond Baseball Association, assisting coaches and performing baseball glove repair.

Mr. Bacon was a lifetime member of the Masonic Lodge.

Survivors are his wife, Crystal; son, Ron Bacon of Bellingham; brothers, Carrol "Hugh" Bacon and Robert Bacon, both of Seattle; sisters, Viola Pulfrey of Claremont, S.D., Helen Turner of Elgin, Ill., Ethel Severson of Marysville and Joyce Giesey of Plant City, Fla.; and several nephews and nieces.

His family suggests memorials in Mr. Bacon's name be made to the Redmond Baseball Association, P.O. Box 292, Redmond, Wash., 98073-0292.

Green's Redmond Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Helen M. Carlson, Bellevue homemaker

Helen Mae Carlson, a Bellevue homemaker, died following an illness on Saturday, Aug. 15, in Bellevue. No formal service is planned.

She was born in Minneapolis, Minn., and moved to the Clyde Hill area in Bellevue in 1951 with her husband and two children.

In her leisure time, Mrs. Carlson enjoyed playing bridge and was very active in duplicate bridge groups in Bellevue and on Mercer Island.

Survivors are her husband, Elmer A. Carlson; son, James Carlson and his wife, Vickie, of Washington, D.C.; daughter, Mary Lowry and her husband, Mike, and a granddaughter, Dian, all of Renton; sister, Stella Benson of Bellevue; brother Jim Erwin of Enumclaw; and many nieces and nephews.

Bleitz Funeral Home in Seattle was in charge of arrangements.

Ernest Gomez, policeman, interpreter

A funeral service for Ernest Gomez, of Issaquah, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Flintoft's Issaquah Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Hillside Cemetery. Mr. Gomez, 83, died Thursday at University Hospital in Seattle.

Born Nov. 27, 1908, in Brooklyn, N.Y., the son of Juan and Anna Gomez, Mr. Gomez grew up in Brooklyn and married Josephine A.